Privacy policy

About us

The Sherbornes with Pamber Parochial Church Council is responsible for the running of the churches in this parish within the Diocese of Winchester. This includes the building up of the church within the parish, promoting the Gospel in the name of Jesus, evangelising and supporting the preaching and teaching for the spiritual development of the church family.

The person responsible for Data Control within The Parish of The Sherbornes with Pamber is: Andy Spence (The PCC Secretary).

What is personal data?

Personal data is defined as any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (the 'data subject'). The processing of personal data is governed by the GDPR.

The lawful basis for processing your personal data

All organisations need a lawful basis to collect and use personal data. In accordance with GDPR, we can legally process your personal information because you have given us your consent to collect, process and store your personal data by signing a contract with us.

Processing your personal data

We collect personal data in order to be able to offer the best advice for your circumstances. We will only use any personal information you have chosen to provide to us, for the purpose that you provided it for.

We will not use your personal data for any other purpose without your consent. We will not disclose your personal data to any third parties without your consent, except where we are required to do so by law. We will never sell or receive payment for licensing or disclosing your personal information. Statistics gathered to monitor the service for the purposes of identifying any policy issues and to support funding applications will be anonymised to prevent identification of individual users.

Data protection principles

We comply with our obligations under the GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate measures are in place to protect personal data

Our purpose for processing your personal data including special category data

In order to comply with the Financial Conduct Authority's Consumer Credit Sourcebook Regulations we are required to obtain all relevant data in order to be able to offer you the best advice based on your circumstances. This may include processing Special Category Data such as health information or other data of a sensitive nature.

We will only collect Special Category Data if there is a clear reason for doing so, such as where we need this information to ensure that we provide appropriate advice or support to you. We will only use sensitive information for the purposes for which it is provided.

Your data rights

Under data protection law, you have rights we need to make you aware of. The rights available to you depend on our reason for processing your information.

a) Your right of access

You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information. There are some exemptions, which mean you may not always receive all the information we process. You can read more about this on the ICO website: <https://ico.org.uk/your-data-matters/your-right-of-access/>

b) Your right to get your data corrected

You have the right to ask us to correct any information we hold about you which you think is inaccurate. This is also known as the 'right to rectification.' You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete. You can read more about this right here: <https://ico.org.uk/your-data-matters/your-right-to-get-your-data-corrected/>

c) Your right to erasure

You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances. This is known as the right to erasure. This is also known as the 'right to be forgotten'. You can read more about this right here: <https://ico.org.uk/your-data-matters/your-right-to-get-your-data-deleted/>

d) Your right to restriction of processing

You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your information in certain circumstances. You can read more about this right here: <https://ico.org.uk/your-data-matters/your-right-to-limit-how-organisations-use-your-data/>

e) Your right to object to processing

You have an absolute right to stop the processing of your personal data for direct marketing purposes. However, we may still be able to legitimately continue using your data for other purposes. You can read more about this right here: <https://ico.org.uk/your-data-matters/the-right-to-object-to-the-use-of-your-data/>

f) Your right to data portability

You have the right to ask that we transfer the information you gave us to another organisation, or give it to you. This right only applies to electronically held data that you have provided to us and we are processing with your consent. You can read more about this right here: <https://ico.org.uk/your-data-matters/your-right-to-data-portability/>

Your right to withdraw consent

Where we are using your personal information based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time by contacting our Data Controller, verbally or in writing.

Your right to complain

You have the right to be confident that we will handle your personal information responsibly and in line with good practice. If you have concerns about the way we are handling your information, please contact our Data Controller (Stuart Brack) in the first instance as we have a dedicated complaints procedure.

If you are unhappy with how your complaint has been handled by us or if we have failed to resolve your information rights concern, you can raise the matter with the Information Commissioner's Office by calling them on 0303 123 1113 or via email <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/email/> or by writing to the ICO, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire. SK9 5AF.

Exercising your rights

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is considered to be 'manifestly unfounded or excessive'. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances. You will be informed of this in writing, where this is the case. We have one month to respond to your request. In certain circumstances we may need extra time to consider your request and can take up to an extra two months. If we are going to do this, we will let you know within one month that we need more time and why.

Please contact our Data Controller (Stuart Brack) if you wish to make a request to access your personal information held by the Parish of The Sherbornes with Pamber.

Sharing your information with third parties

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential.

Signed on behalf of PCC

Andrew Spence
PCC Secretary
